

ARTS EVENT

General information

Event:

The Northwestern francophone Games

Dates:

July 11-15, 2023

Location:

Victoria (BC)

The disciplines

To find out how many spots are still available and to register, contact your delegation directly.

Culinary Arts: 2 spots per delegation

Visual Arts: 6 spots per delegation

Improvisation: 6 spots per delegation

Music: one solo artist or band per delegation (from 1 to 6 people maximum)

CULINARY ARTS

2 spots per delegation

Program

2 rounds:

Round 1: Home Grown

The young chefs have 3 hours to prepare three dishes (an appetizer, a main course and a dessert). The main course must follow the theme "Home Grown" and must include an ingredient from the participants' province or territory.

Round 2: Farm to Table

Chefs will be grouped into interprovincial teams to demonstrate their skills and efficiency in creating a work of art in a limited time using Farm to Table ingredients.

Medals will be awarded to 1st, 2nd and 3rd place in each round.

VISUAL ARTS

6 spots per delegation

Program

2 rounds:

Round 1 (individual): Masterpiece

This round allows artists to invest one day in the creation of an original large-scale work. The theme and the choice of medium are left up to the artist.

Round 2 (individual): Timed Challenge

This timed event allows artists to demonstrate their talent and efficiency by creating an original work in 90 minutes.

+ A collective inter-provincial creation (no ranking)

Medals will be awarded to 1st, 2nd and 3rd place in each round.

IMPROV

6 spots per delegation

Program

2 rounds:

Preliminary Round:

Teams play a minimum of three games lasting 55 minutes each.

Elimination Round:

Teams will play an improvisational tournament with elimination scoring.

The goal of this competition is to award 3 winning teams using the JFCNO improvisation rules, with 55 minute matches, including 8 improvisations per match.

MUSIC

1 solo
artist or band
per delegation

Program

For the music event, the band or artist must be already formed and established. The main music event is a performance. Each group/artist must prepare 3 pieces of music, with or without lyrics:

- At least two of which are original compositions, composed by the solo artist or members of the musical group (100% French, no translation).
- A maximum of one song from the repertoire of an international francophone artist.

The artist/group will be evaluated by a jury according to criteria of music, interpretation, text, animation, and growth of the artist. The jury will select a winning artist, as well as the youth of the music discipline will vote for the recipient of the medal of appreciation.